The Sequim Centennial Committee is Looking for Vintage Milk Cans

Thank you to Marilyn Siebens, John & Carmen Jarvis, Karen Smith, and City employee Kevin Hergert for donating vintage milk cans for the Centennial art project. The Sequim Centennial committee is looking for donations of 24" tall vintage milk cans to be painted or decorated by local artists, to be shown as a public art display, and auctioned at the end of the Centennial Celebration to raise monies for the Centennial events. For questions or donations, please contact Sequim City Clerk, Karen Kuznek-Reese at 681-3428 or kkuznek@sequimwa.gov.

Please bring non-perishable food items to any public meeting at the Transit Center for the Sequim Food Bank.

Visit the City Booth at the Sequim Irrigation Festival Merchants Fair
Saturday, May 5 from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Get a first look at the finished artwork for the Sequim Centennial poster. Pre-orders for the poster will be taken and other Centennial merchandise will be for sale. You’ll also have the chance to learn more about the proposed new Police Station and City Hall and help with visioning for SEQUIM 120.

1978 History

- James Dinan, Dale Turton and Alfred McClurken were sworn in as councilmembers. There was a moratorium on annexations in this year.
- John Kirner was appointed to fill a Council vacancy in February.
- There was consideration as to whether to allow Bell Hill to apply for annexation into the Town.
- The Town agreed to hook up water and sewer lines for the school’s concession stand so long as the school paid the permit fees.
- Dale Kruse, a volunteer firefighter, was killed August 30, 1978, while responding to a fire. Resolution 98 was created in honor of Mr. Kruse and was given to his wife. Council approved placing a monument by the flag pole at City Hall (where it still exists today).
