1. Changes to Agenda

2. Approval of minutes

- a. March 20, 2017
- b. March 30, 2017

Motion to approve made by Lizbeth Harper; second by Susan Shaw. Carried Unanimously.

3. Comments (Please limit comments to 3 minutes.)

4. Unfinished Business

Information

- a. April 7 – First Friday debrief
  - i. National Audubon exhibit
  - ii. Peeps show

There were 8 entries and 133 votes cast. The winner was the Peeps Picnic by Sara German. She received a certificate and box of Peeps. People were very interested in this exhibit and many participated in the voting. Participants have indicated they are looking forward to next year.

The upcoming quilt exhibit will be open on Saturdays in June from 10am to 1pm. Sharon is trying to get volunteer docents from the quilt group. Let her or Karen know if you are interested in one of the shifts.

b. Keying Around update

Information

The GoFundMe page has been set up. Natalie encouraged everyone to like the Keying Around page. Natalie has been recruiting painters.

Natalie has talked with vendors about providing food and the beer garden. Pacific Pantry, Maggie May's, and Blondie's are all interested. Bobbie will work with Natalie and Lisa Bridge (market manager) on the details for the Temporary Activity Permit.

- c. Civic Center Art Acquisition Review RFP

Several changes were made to the RFP. This will come back to CAAC for review.

- d. Arts Commission member recruitment Information

Eileen Cummings will move into the county position recently vacated by Patsy Mattingley. Jake Reichner, art teacher at the high school, is interested in the city position. These appointments will go to the City Council for confirmation on April 24, 2017.

- e. Follow up from Planning Session
