a. Keying Around

Update

Natalie reported pianos have been delivered. Natalie encouraged everyone to like and share the Keying Around Facebook page. She has created an Instagram account. She suggested having people take their photos with pianos and post their pictures. A drawing could be held every week from the entries.

She will create a walking map and she is doing a presentation at the upcoming merchants' meeting.

Pianos will be placed at Over the Fence, The Emerald, and perhaps Doodlebugs.

August 4 the band, Shaggy Sweet, can play from 7 to 9 or 9:30. Karen will check with the band. Phil Castell, Sharon Delabarre and Susan Molin have all contributed $500 to make this event happen.

Karen will contact Renne with information for July First Friday.

Karen will set up a meeting next week to finalize details.

b. Piecing Together exhibit

Review/Discuss

Weekends have been popular. Some came from Arizona and Canada just for this exhibit.

Sharon suggested purchasing one of the pieces in the exhibit. This exhibit will come down on June 30.

c. Music in the Park & Plaza Programming

Discussion

Everyone was asked if they would like to announce at one of the events. Let Karen know.

d. Asian Exhibit Update

Pam offered to watch tables while the presenters are giving their talks on First Friday. Susan Molin will pick up cards from Susan Shaw to send to the presenters thanking them for their presentations.

b. Discuss 2018 Exhibits

It was agreed that April will be the Peeps Show and May will be Police Month. The times for the exhibits could be adjusted and December will be a kids' art show.

c. Guy Cole outside of building

Beautification ideas

Flower pots would help during the summer. What about painting murals around the pots. Karen will check with David.

Perhaps high school students could paint a mural for credit. This is a question for Jake.

6. Public Comments (Please limit comments to 3 minutes.)

Meeting adjourned at 4:50 p.m.

NOTE: There is still one vacancy on the Arts Commission for someone who resides within the Sequim city limits.
