SURVEY RESULTS SUMMARY

CITY OF SEQUIM COMPREHENSIVE PLAN

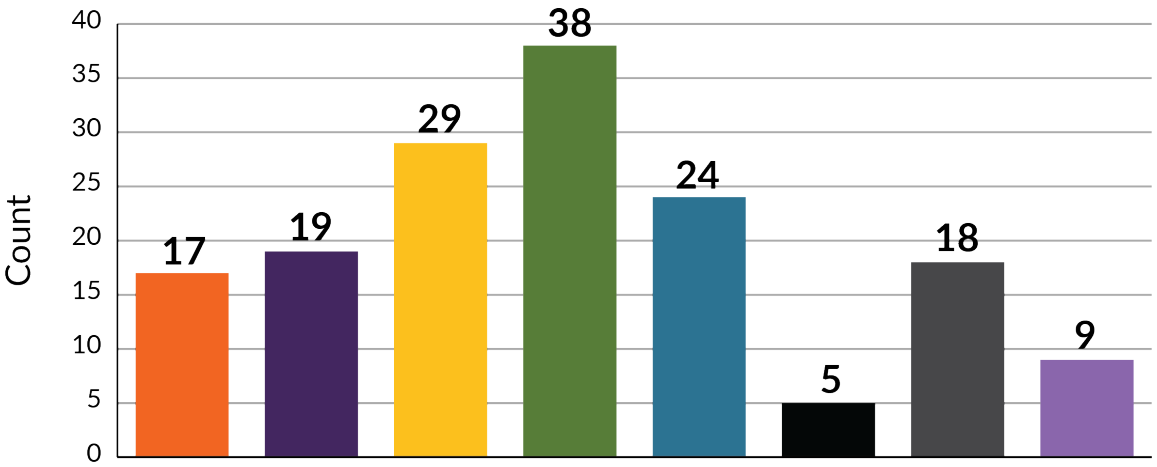

RESPONSE COUNTS

Total Responses: 69

VISION PRIORITIES

Question 1. Please indicate your top three vision priorities for the future of Sequim. Your answers will help refine and clarify the long-term direction of the city.

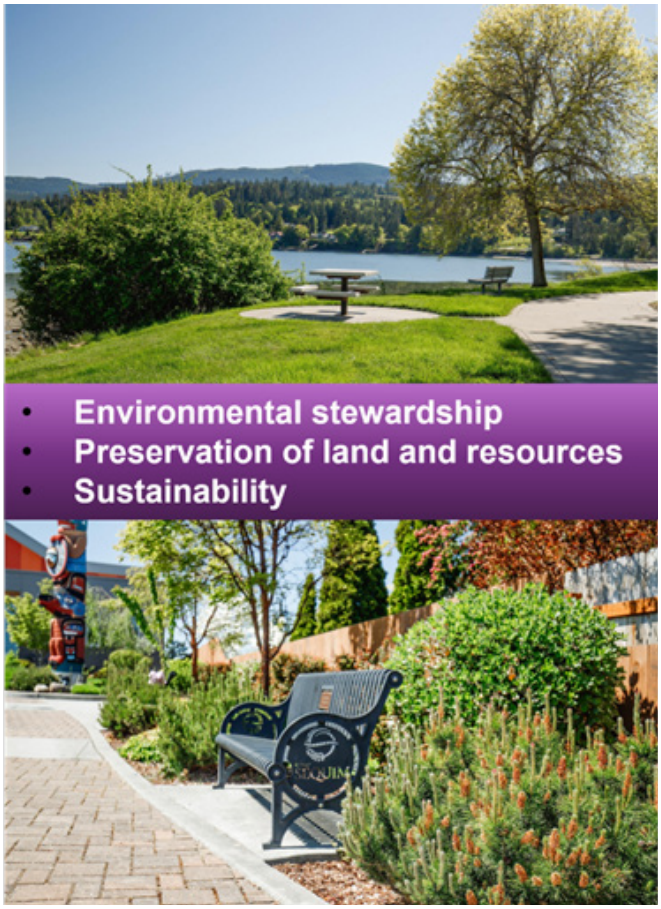

- Opportunities for mutual support and 'small-town friendliness'
- Diversity of people, perspectives, opportunities, and activities
- An attractive and lively downtown
- Preservation of rural land and open space
- A place to grow up and retire
- Community involvement and volunteerism
- Connectivity between neighborhoods with many options to get around
- Other (elaborate here)

Other Responses, 1 each:

1. Affordable Housing
2. Crime free
3. Economic Development
4. Encorage ADU housing downtown
5. Few People
6. Housing and support services to help families thrive
7. Parks & Rec
8. Prepare infrastructure for growth
9. over or under animal crossings to protect wildlife from Hwy 101

SCENARIO A: RESILIENCE

Participants were given the materials below to answer questions related to "Scenario A." Each question required them to move a slider bar to choose a value between 0 and 100.

What is a RESILIENT Sequim in 2045?

- A shining example of environmental stewardship
- People and nature exist in harmony
- Reduced carbon footprint
- Restored natural areas
- Sustainable food production

Achieved by:

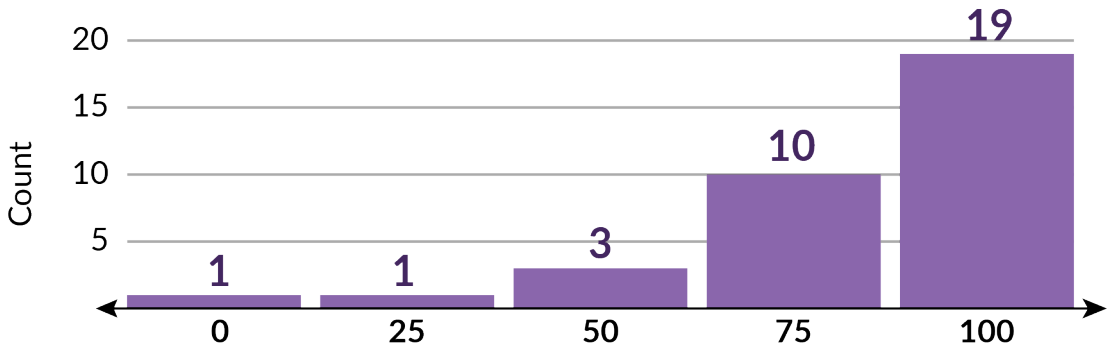

- Preserving farmland
- Using space efficiently
- Managing fragile areas responsibly
- Compact growth

Key Partnerships for Success:

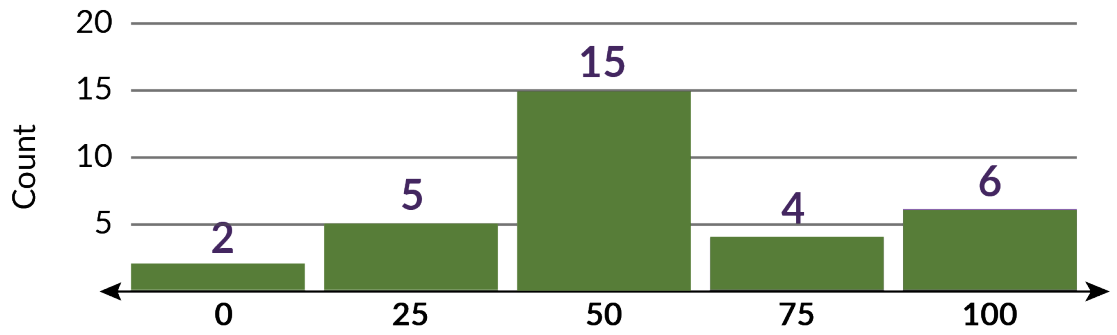

- Clallam County agricultural conservation
- Land trusts
- Bonneville Power

Question 2. How does Scenario A meet the needs of the values below? (Note: these values emerged from previous workshops with residents and stakeholders)

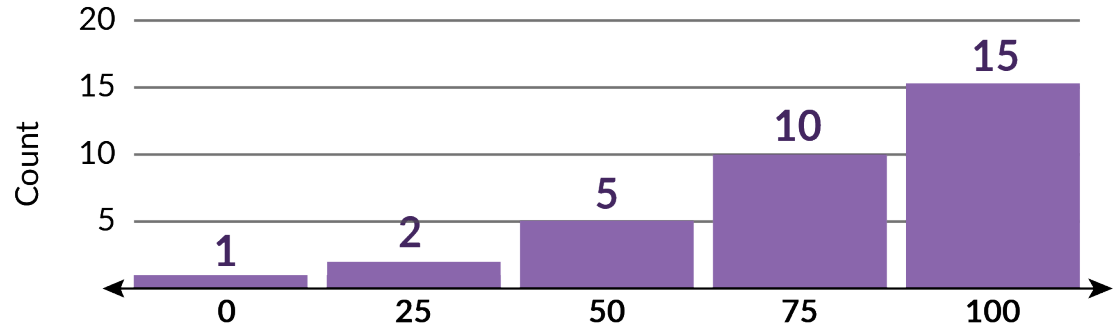

- Preserves Rural Lands

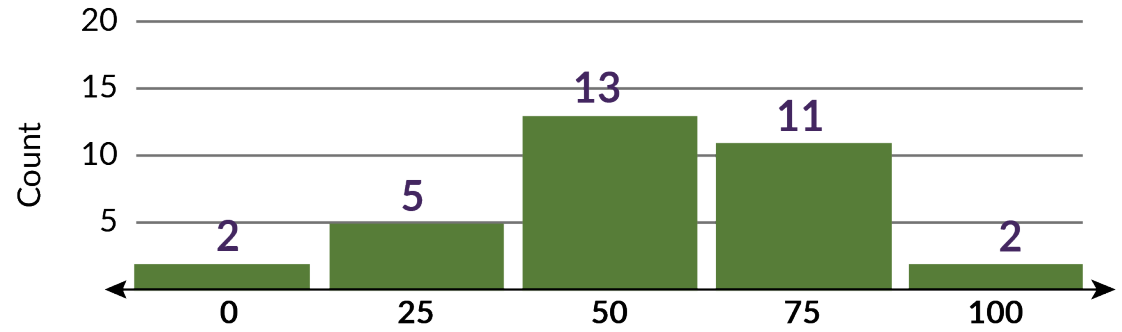

- Provides housing to all who need it

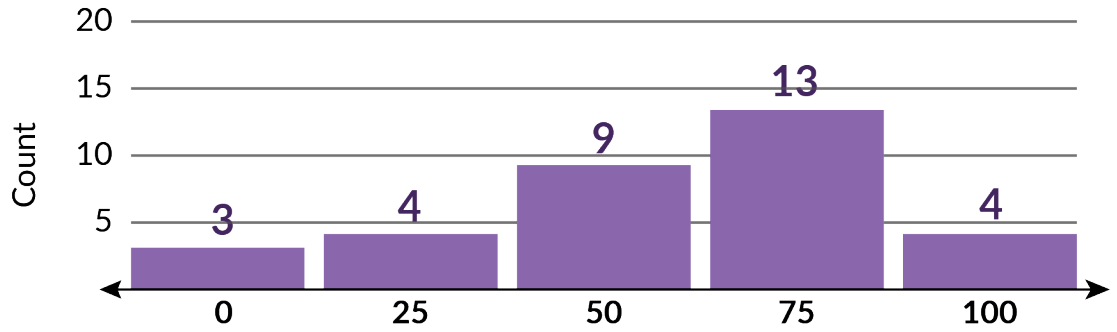

- Conserves the water resource

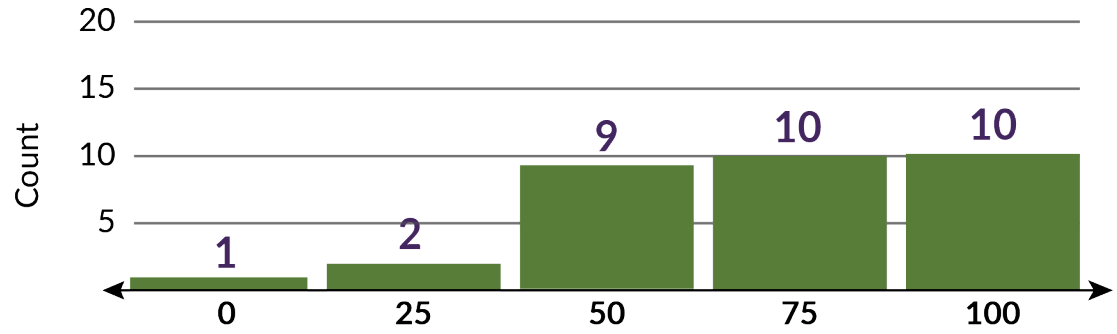

- Improves transportation safety

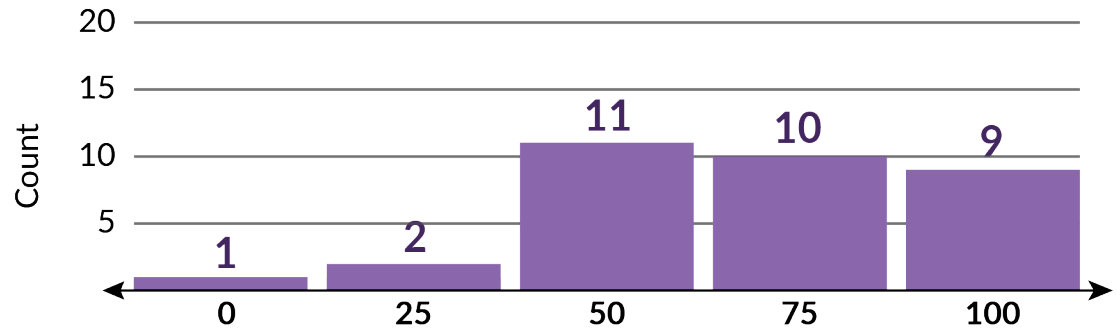

- Promotes Economic Opportunity

- Attracts and retains families

- Ensures financial/fiscal responsibility

SCENARIO B: PROSPERITY

Participants were given the materials below to answer questions related to "Scenario A." Each question required them to move a slider bar to choose a value between 0 and 100.

What is a PROSPEROUS Sequim in 2045?

- Economic development
- Flourishing local businesses
- Expanded economic opportunities for all income groups
- Well-paying jobs
- Outdoor recreation as an economic asset
- Housing is available for all income levels.

Achieved by:

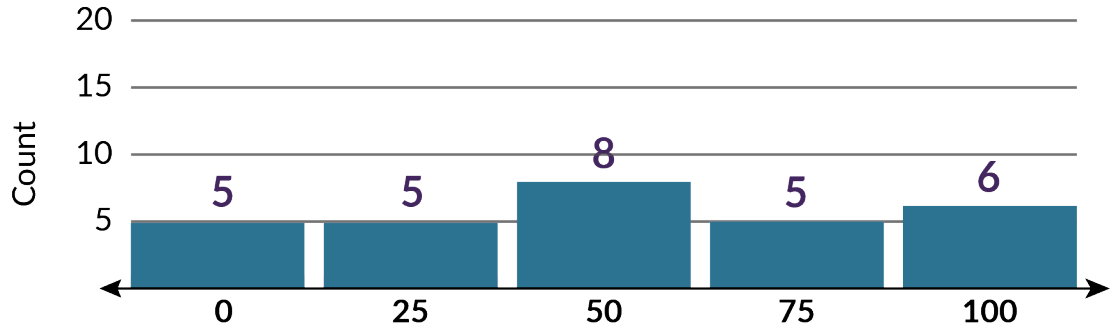

- A diverse, mixed-use business district
- Transportation connections and links
- An attractive downtown
- Diverse housing options
- Efficient infrastructure
- Hubs of mixed use opportunity
- Links to recreation and tourism experiences

Key Partnerships for Success:

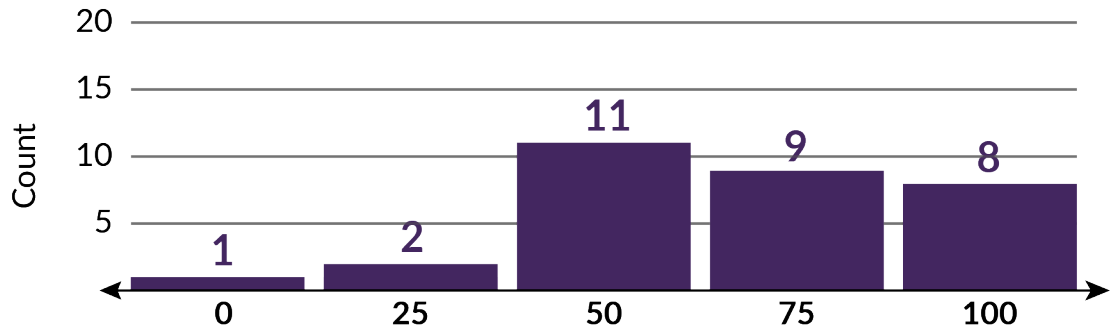

- WSDOT (WA Department of Transportation)
- Business organizations
- Chamber of Commerce
- Housing providers

Question 3. How does Scenario B meet the needs of the values below? (Note: these values emerged from previous workshops with residents and stakeholders)

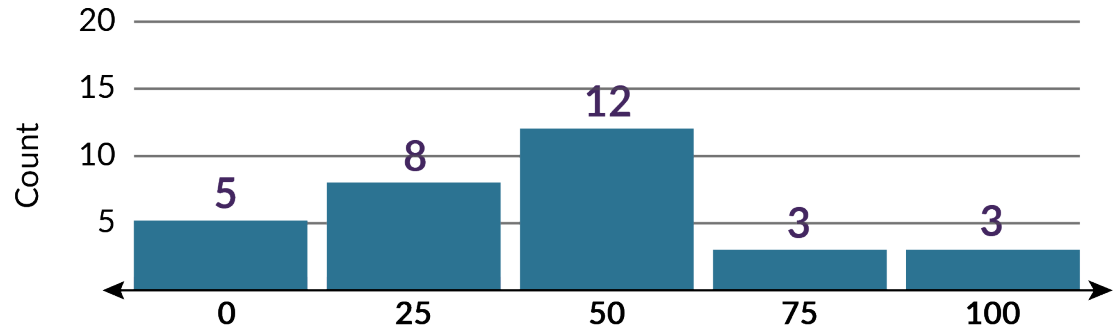

- Preserves Rural Lands

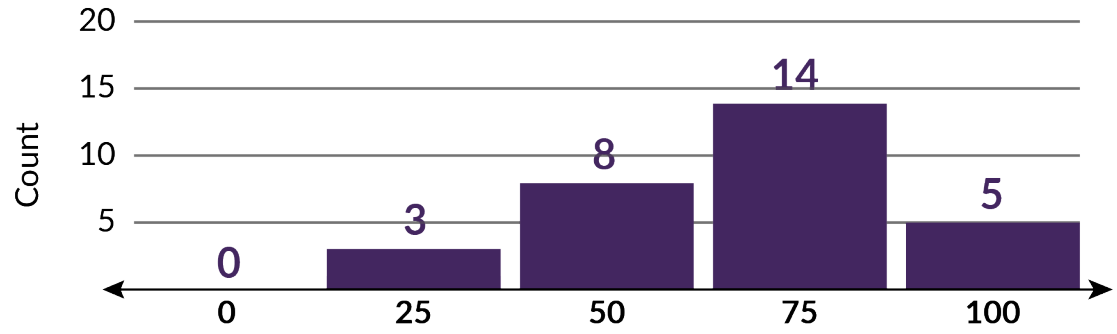

- Provides housing to all who need it

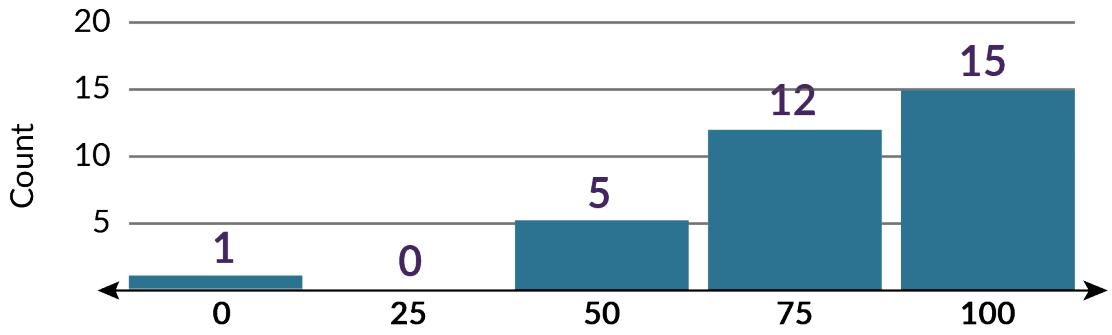

- Conserves the water resource

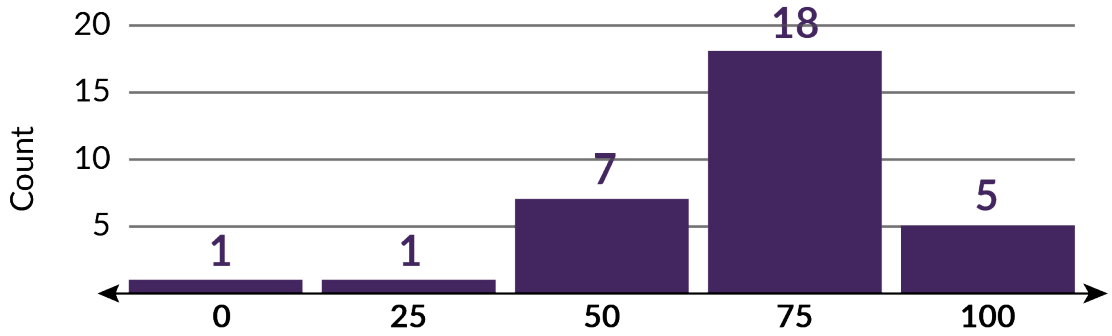

- Improves transportation safety

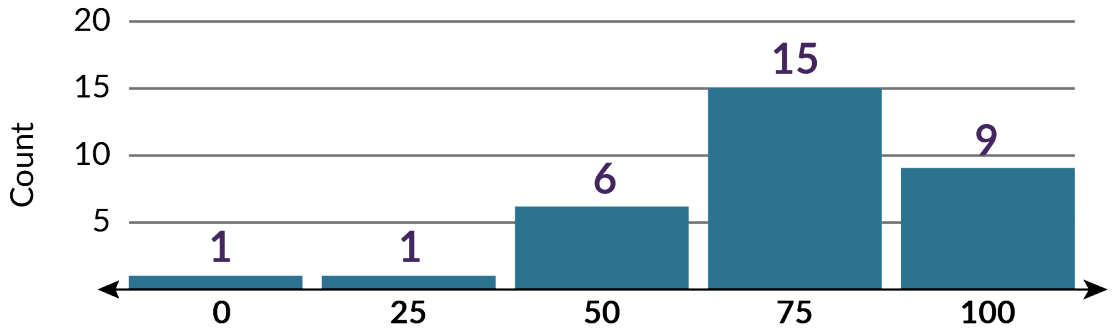

- Promotes economic opportunity

- Attracts and retains families

- Ensures financial/fiscal responsibility

SCENARIO C: FAMILIES

Participants were given the materials below to answer questions related to "Scenario A." Each question required them to move a slider bar to choose a value between 0 and 100.

What is a Family-Oriented Sequim in 2045?

- A wonderful place to retire AND raise a family.
- High-quality schools
- Continuing education opportunities
- Local talent is nurtured
- Opportunities for safe, accessible fun for families and residents of all ages
- Lively community and culture

Achieved by:

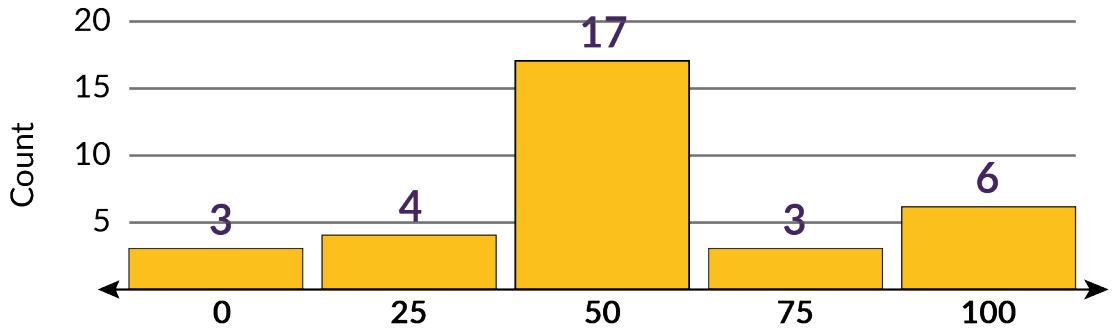

- An accessible, safe transportation network
- Downtown activities and community
- Safe routes to schools
- Close ties to the outdoors
- Schools as neighborhood focal points

Key Partnerships for Success:

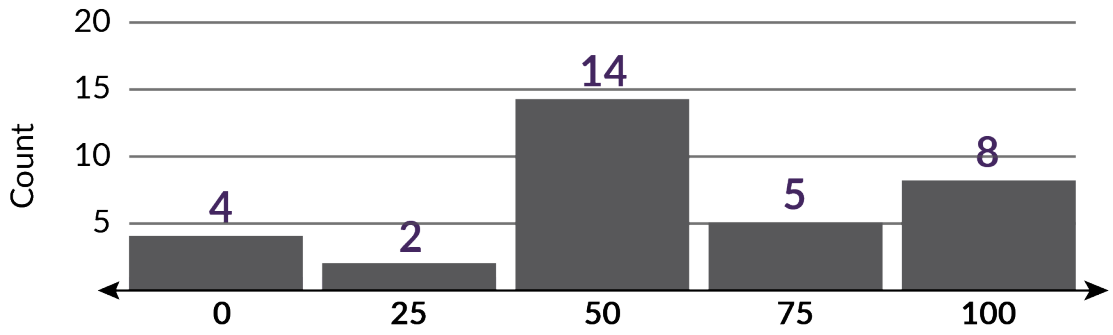

- Peninsula College
- School districts
- Medical Providers
- Tribes (services, community integration, connectedness)
- Housing providers

Question 4. How does Scenario C meet the needs of the values below? (Note: these values emerged from previous workshops with residents and stakeholders)

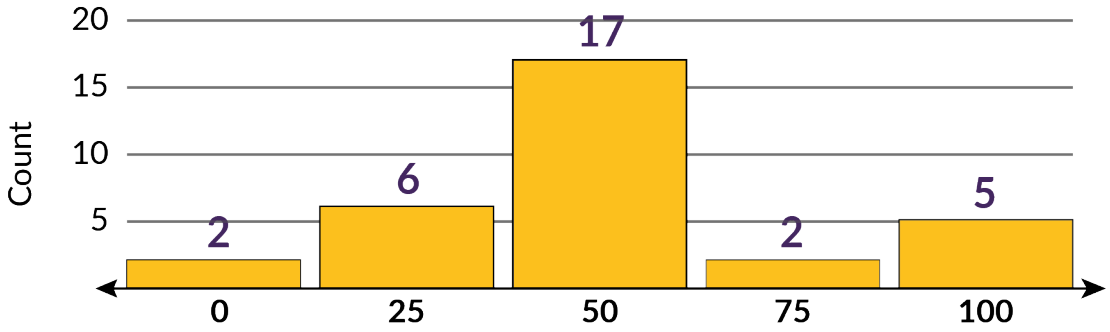

- Preserves Rural Lands

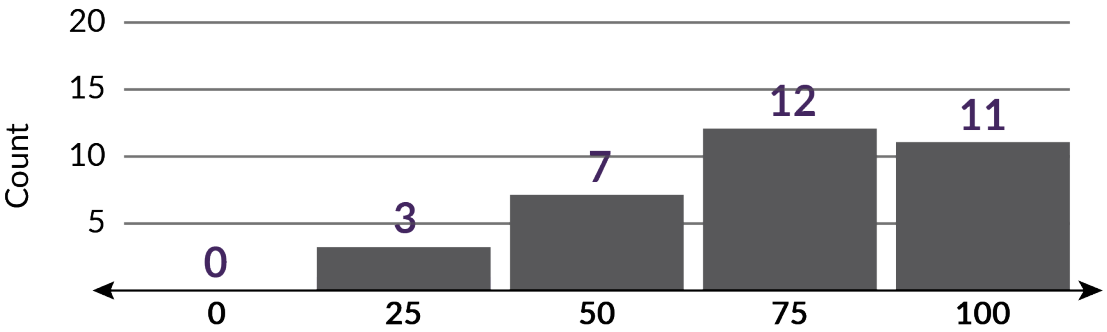

- Provides housing to all who need it

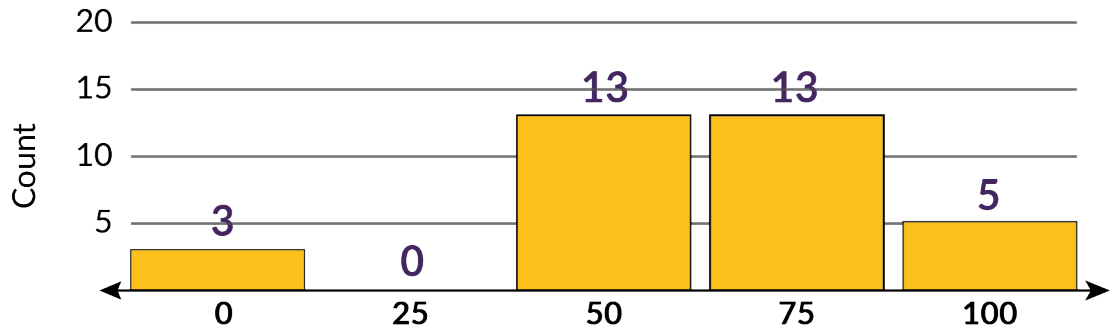

- Conserves the water resource

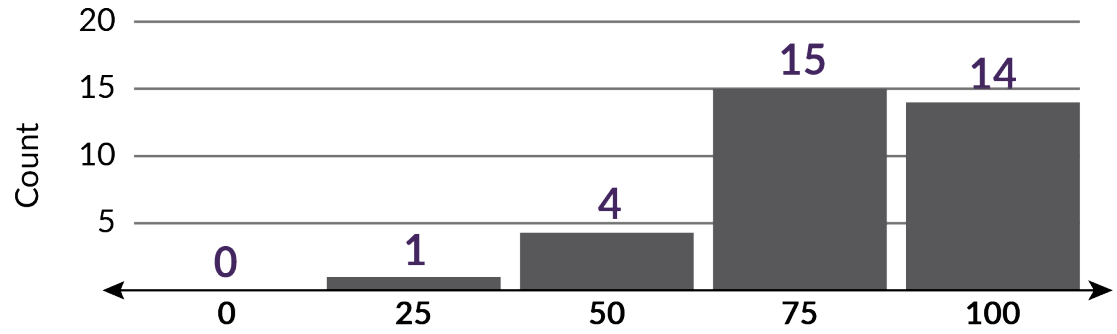

- Improves transportation safety

- Promotes economic opportunity

- Attracts and retains families

- Ensures financial/fiscal responsibility

